Where: Colorado-based

Position: Volunteer Board of Directors

Organizational Summary

The Mountain Mamas is a national 501c3 designated organization founded in 2019. The Mountain Mamas currently operates in Colorado and Montana. The organizational goals include protecting air and water quality, achieving climate justice, and protecting public lands. The Mountain Mamas is an inclusionary organization for anyone who identifies with our mission and vision statement, and inspires and educates “Mamas” across the Rocky Mountains to organize and advocate for key issues central to a high outdoor quality of life. The Mountain Mamas is based in Bozeman, MT and Denver, CO, with expansion into other mountain west states possible in the coming years.

Mission

The Mountain Mamas protect our air, water, climate and public lands for future generations.

Essential Duties and Expectations:

- Advise, lead, and provide oversight to the Mountain Mamas organization and staff, and ensure organization is maintaining mission and strategically driving growth and impact.
- Commit to serving for three years
- Participate in a majority of our events (not more than one a month)
- Actively recruit others to join Mountain Mamas – 5 per year
- Must check at least one box of Wisdom, Wealth, or Work – meaning Board Members provide expertise in a relevant area, provide funding, or are willing to put in the work necessary to achieve our goals.
- Available to call in/attend 4 quarterly meetings annually. Three of which are conference calls, one meeting is in person and will rotate each year to different states MM is located (i.e. initially in Montana and Colorado).
- Participate in at least one committee or Board advisory role (Financial/Treasurer, Secretary, Communications/Social Media, Governance, Grassroots/Events)
- Be a spokesperson and ambassador for Mountain Mamas by explaining the organization’s work and values to the broader community
- Provide content for MM social media feeds (i.e. social media takeover days for each board member, share MM promotions or issues, etc.)
- Be passionate about our families (whatever the size or complexion) and our love of place, with a strong desire to elevate and raise women’s voices and impact in conservation.
